

DANGOTE Did It!

The Management and Staff of the Nigerian Content Development and Monitoring Board (NCDMB) felicitate President Muhammadu Buhari (GCFR), President of Dangote Petrochemical and Refinery Company, Alhalji Aliko Dangote, and the Nigerian Petroleum Industry on the inauguration of the 650, 000 barrels per day Dangote Petroleum Refinery, Africa's biggest crude oil refinery and the world's largest single-train facility.

This project is key to Nigeria's energy security as well as export of refined products and is enduring evidence of President Buhari's transformative impact on the oil and gas industry.

We celebrate the phenomenal local content accomplishments:

Construction phase involved

- 55,569 Nigerian technicians/engineers
- 199 Nigerian contractors directly and 200 firms indirectly

Operational phase, would employ

- 2,042 persons directly
- Over 200,000 indirectly
- 900 engineers
- 45 service contractors from different fields

NCDMB is extremely proud to have collaborated closely with Dangote Refinery on this project. We are committed to supporting investors in adding value to Nigeria's hydrocarbon resources.

Congratulations.

Engr. Simbi Kesiye Wabote, FNSE, FIPS
Executive Secretary, NCDMB
